Transamerica Retirement Solutions' Stig Nybo Honored with Two 2013 USA Best Book Awards

Retirement industry leader and author, Stig Nybo, wins the Best Book Award in two categories

Transamerica Retirement Solutions today announced that Stig Nybo, Transamerica's president of pension sales and distribution, won two 2013 USA Best Book Awards for his book, Transform Tomorrow: Awakening the Super Saver in Pursuit of Retirement Readiness. Mr. Nybo received awards in the "Business: Investing" and "Social Change" categories.

Transform Tomorrow focuses on raising the nation's level of awareness about retirement readiness and the challenge of retirement insecurity, which will affect millions of American workers in the coming years. The book calls for all stakeholders — employers, the retirement industry, policymakers and employees — to take action to ensure that workers are adequately prepared for retirement.

Now in its 11th year, the USA Best Book Awards are published by USA Book News to recognize the best in fiction and non-fiction. This year's winners were selected from more than 1,500 entries.

"I'm honored that Transform Tomorrow received this award from USA Book News," said Nybo. "Every American should be able to retire with dignity, and we need to act collectively to ensure that this is a possibility. The fact that the selection committee recognized this message as important is an indication that awareness about Americans' need to save more for retirement is growing."

Transform Tomorrow is available on Amazon.com. The book's proceeds are directed toward raising public awareness of the broad need to save more for retirement.
